Legislation to protect the privacy of gun owners

Legislation was introduced today to create the "Employee Firearms Right to Protection Act."

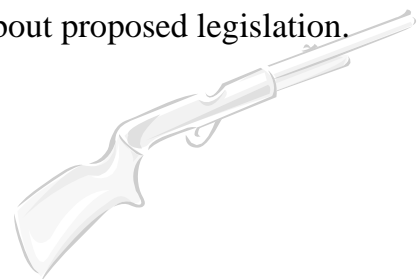

Senate Bill 1025 would prohibit employers from making an employment decision based upon an applicant's or employee's ownership of a firearm(s) unless that information is pertinent to the specific duties of the job.

SB 1025 has been referred to the Senate Committee on Commerce and Labor.

Senator Garcia is a co-sponsor for the "Employee Firearms Right to Protection Act."

Should you wish to learn more about the proposed legislation, please visit www.michiganlegislature.org and enter the bill number where indicated. The web-site will provide you with the bill's language as introduced and an analysis describing how the bill will affect area industry, the economy and consumers.

Senator Garcia is eager to learn how you feel about proposed legislation. He welcomes your responses via e-mail at senvgarcia@senate.michigan.gov.
